

YU-JEN SHIH, CFA

Portfolio Manager
Deputy Director of Research
Franklin Templeton Emerging Markets Equity
Singapore

Yu-Jen Shih is a portfolio manager, and deputy director of research for the Franklin Templeton Emerging Markets Equity. He is responsible for portfolio management in Asia, as well as for maintaining the consistency and robustness of the research process and the ongoing development of timely, high quality investment ideas.

Mr. Shih brings over two decades of global and Asia investment experience. He was previously with Fullerton Fund Management in Singapore where he was the lead manager of several Asia-focused equity funds. Prior to Fullerton, he was an equity portfolio manager at Henderson Global Investors and at Baring Asset Management, based in London.

Mr. Shih holds a Master of Science in Finance and a Master of Engineering from Imperial College. He is also a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charterholder and a native Mandarin speaker.