

Franklin Mutual Global Discovery Fund

Class A (acc) EUR-H2 • ISIN LU0294219513 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds
The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Franklin Mutual Global Discovery Fund (the “Fund”) investment objective is to seek investment growth, through growth of capital.

Investment Policy

The Fund mainly invests in equities of companies of large and medium market capitalisation (with at least $US1.5 billion in market capitalisation) anywhere in the world.

To a lesser extent, the Fund may invest in government bonds as well as in equities and bonds issued by companies that may be restructuring or going through major corporate changes.

Derivatives and techniques The Fund may use derivatives for reducing risks (hedging) and costs, and to generate additional income or growth.

Strategy The investment manager uses Fundamental research and analysis to select companies that appear to be undervalued.

SFDR category Article 8 (promotes environmental and/or social characteristics under EU regulations).

In promoting the fund’s environmental and social characteristics, the investment manager commits to maintaining a greenhouse gas intensity (scope 1 and 2) at least 20% below that of the benchmark and supporting board gender diversity. Through their proprietary analysis, the investment manager may also consider other environmental, social and governance (ESG) criteria to assess long-term opportunities and risks. The fund also excludes or restricts investments in certain industries that are harmful to the environment or society, such as thermal coal, weapons and tobacco. The investment manager may engage in dialogue with companies concerning ESG issues.

derivatives: Financial instruments whose value is linked to one or more rates, indexes, share prices or other values.

equities: Securities that represent partial ownership of a company.

Share Class Currency: EUR

Treatment of Income: The income received from the Fund’s investments is accumulated with the result of increasing the value of the shares.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund invests mainly in equity securities of mid- and large-capitalisation companies worldwide. Such securities have historically been subject to significant price movements that may occur suddenly due to market or company-specific factors. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate considerably over time.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Derivative Instruments risk: the risk of loss in an instrument where a small change in the value of the underlying investment may have a larger impact on the value of such instrument. Derivatives may involve additional liquidity, credit and counterparty risks.

Foreign Currency risk: the risk of loss arising from exchange-rate fluctuations or due to exchange control regulations.

Liquidity risk: the risk that arises when adverse market conditions affect the ability to sell assets when necessary. Such risk may be triggered by (but not limited to) unexpected events such as environmental disasters or pandemics. Reduced liquidity may have a negative impact on the price of the assets.

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the “Risk Considerations” section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
