

Franklin Strategic Income Fund

Class A (Mdis) USD • ISIN LU0300737201 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds
The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Franklin Strategic Income Fund (the “Fund”) investment objective is to generate high levels of income and, as a secondary objective, long-term investment growth.

Investment Policy

The Fund mainly invests in corporate and government bonds and asset- and mortgage-backed securities, denominated in any currency. These investments may be from anywhere in the world, including emerging markets. The Fund may invest significantly in below investment grade and unrated bonds, and equities of companies that are restructuring or going through bankruptcy.

To a lesser extent, the Fund may also invest in securities in default, “to-be-announced” (TBA) mortgage-backed securities (higher risk securities) and in securities in default.

Derivatives and techniques The Fund may use derivatives for reducing risks (hedging) and costs, and to generate additional income or growth.

SFDR category Article 6 (does not promote environmental and/or social characteristics or have a sustainable investment objective under EU regulations).

Base currency US dollar (USD).

Benchmark(s) Bloomberg US Aggregate Index. Used for performance comparison only.

The Fund is actively managed and may deviate materially from that of the benchmark(s).

Buying and selling shares

You may normally buy or sell shares on any day the New York Stock Exchange is open for business.

Intended retail investor

Investors who understand the risks of the Fund and plan to invest for at least 3 years. The Fund may appeal to investors who:

- are looking for income
- are interested in exposure to global bond markets as part of a diversified portfolio
- have a medium risk profile and can tolerate moderate short-term changes in the share price

Product availability The Fund is available to all investors with at least basic investment knowledge, through a wide range of distribution channels, with or without the need for advice.

Terms to Understand asset- and mortgage- backed securities: Bonds backed by consumer debt (such as mortgages, credit card and other loan-type debt) and whose income derives from the payments received from the underlying borrowers.

bonds, below investment grade: Bonds represent an obligation to repay a debt, along with interest. Below investment grade bonds generally pay higher interest rates but are considered less likely to make all scheduled payments or repay the initial debt.

derivatives: Financial instruments whose value is linked to one or more rates, indexes, share prices or other values.

emerging markets: Markets of less economically developed nations, such as some nations in Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe and Latin America.

Share Class Currency: USD

Treatment of Income: For the distribution share class shown in this document, dividend income is distributed to shareholders.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund invests mainly in debt securities of any quality from issuers of both developed and emerging countries. Such securities have historically been subject to price movements, generally due to interest rates, foreign exchange rates or movements in the bond market. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate moderately over time.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Credit risk: the risk of loss arising from default that may occur if an issuer fails to make principal or interest payments when due. This risk is higher if the Fund holds low-rated, sub-investment-grade securities.

Derivative Instruments risk: the risk of loss in an instrument where a small change in the value of the underlying investment may have a larger impact on the value of such instrument. Derivatives may involve additional liquidity, credit and counterparty risks.

Emerging markets risk: the risk related to investing in countries that have less developed political, economic, legal and regulatory systems, and that may be impacted by political/economic instability, lack of liquidity or transparency, or safekeeping issues.

Liquidity risk: the risk that arises when adverse market conditions affect the ability to sell assets when necessary. Such risk may be triggered by (but not limited to) unexpected events such as environmental disasters or pandemics. Reduced liquidity may have a negative impact on the price of the assets.

Securitisation risk: investment in securities which generate return from various underlying groups of assets such as mortgages, loans or other assets may bear a greater risk of loss due to possible default of some of the underlying assets.

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the “Risk Considerations” section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
