Franklin UK Rising Dividends Fund

Class Z (acc) • ISIN GB00B757WS62 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Funds
The management company is Franklin Templeton Fund Management Limited

Objectives and Investment Policy

Franklin UK Rising Dividends Fund (the "Fund") aims to increase the value of its investments by more than the return of the FTSE All-Share Index over the medium to long term.

The Fund invests mainly in:

- equity securities of companies that have paid consistently rising dividends.

The Fund will invest in the equity securities of UK companies that the fund management team believes are attractively priced, financially sound, with strong company management and have the potential to continue to increase their dividends over time.

You may request the sale of your shares on any UK business day.

The income received from the Fund's investments is accumulated and included in the value of the shares.

For further information on the Objectives and Investment Policy of the Fund, please refer to the "Investment Objectives and Policies of the Funds" section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Funds.

Terms to Understand

Equity securities: Securities that represent an ownership stake in a company.

Consistently rising dividends: the focus will be on companies that have increased dividend payments in 8 out of the last 10 years and not cut the dividend during this period.

FTSE All Share Index: This index comprises almost every company listed on the London Stock Exchange and is generally considered to be the best performance measure of the overall London equity market.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

As the share class has no sufficient historical data available, simulated data based on a representative portfolio model or benchmark have been used instead.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund invests mainly in equity securities of UK companies that have paid consistently rising dividends. Such securities have historically been subject to price movements due to company-specific factors and movements in the equity markets of the UK generally. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate considerably over time.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the "Risk Factors" section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Funds.
