

Franklin European Total Return Fund

Class W (Ydis) EUR • ISIN LU2251747098 • A sub-fund of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds
The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Franklin European Total Return Fund (the “Fund”) aims to maximise total investment return by achieving an increase in the value of its investments, earning income and realising currency gains over the medium to long term.

The Fund pursues an actively managed investment strategy and invests mainly in:

- higher-quality debt securities issued by governments, government-related entities and corporations located in Europe and/or in euro-denominated securities of non-European issuers

The Fund can invest to a lesser extent in:

- debt securities of any quality (including lower quality) and denominated in any currency from issuers of any type located outside Europe, including emerging markets
- debt securities of supranational entities, such as the European Investment Bank
- structured products such as mortgage- and asset-backed securities, collateralized debt obligations and collateralized loan obligations
- securities in default (limited to 10% of assets)
- derivatives for hedging and efficient portfolio management

The Fund employs a binding environmental, social and governance (ESG) rating methodology to assess climate transition performance of government and corporate bond issuers. The Fund uses a selectivity approach in order to exclude from its portfolio issuers that score in the bottom 20% of each respective investment universe. The Fund’s ESG strategy includes working with companies to improve their carbon emissions, water and wastewater strategies. The Fund also applies specific exclusions and will not invest, inter alia, in companies that repeatedly and/or seriously violate the United Nations Global Compact, manufacture controversial weapons or tobacco, or exceed certain thresholds on the use of fossil fuels.

The Fund may distribute income gross of expenses. Whilst this might allow more income to be distributed, it may also have the effect of reducing capital.

The benchmark of the Fund is the Bloomberg Euro Aggregate Index. The benchmark is used solely as a reference for Investors to compare against the Fund’s performance, and the benchmark is neither used as a constraint on how the Fund’s portfolio is to be constructed nor set as a target for the Fund’s performance to beat. The Fund can deviate from the benchmark.

You may request the sale of your shares on any Luxembourg business day.

For the distribution share class shown in this document, dividend income is distributed to shareholders.

For further information on the Objectives and Investment Policy of the Fund, please refer to the section “Fund Information, Objectives and Investment Policies” of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.

Terms to Understand

Derivatives: Financial instruments whose characteristics and value depend on the performance of one or more underlying assets, typically securities, indexes, currencies or interest rates.

Securities in default: Debt securities whose issuer condition has become uncertain and whose issuer is failing to make principal or interest payments when due.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

As the share class has no sufficient historical data available, simulated data based on a representative portfolio model or benchmark have been used instead.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund invests mainly in European higher-quality debt securities issued by any type of entity. Such securities have historically been subject to price movements, generally due to interest rates or movements in the bond market. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate moderately over time.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Credit risk: the risk of loss arising from default that may occur if an issuer fails to make principal or interest payments when due. This risk is higher if the Fund holds low-rated, sub-investment-grade securities.

Foreign Currency risk: the risk of loss arising from exchange-rate fluctuations or due to exchange control regulations.

Derivative Instruments risk: the risk of loss in an instrument where a small change in the value of the underlying investment may have a larger impact on the value of such instrument. Derivatives may involve additional liquidity, credit and counterparty risks.

Liquidity risk: the risk that arises when adverse market conditions affect the ability to sell assets when necessary. Reduced liquidity may have a negative impact on the price of the assets.

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the “Risk Considerations” section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
